BALLOT IS HIMSELF AGAIN

GREAT SON OF VOTER SETS REMARKABLE PACE IN WINNING ADVANCE.

for Mile and Five-Sixteenths Made by Himself in Winning Same Stake in 1908.

New York, June 27.—James R, Keene's Ballot today made atonement for his defeat in the Suburban by easily winning the Advance from S. C. Hildreth's King James. It was a truly-run race from start to finish and no doubt was left of the superiority of the Voter five-year-old over the son of Plaudit, Ballot was ridden by Joe Notter, who was making his first appearance in the saddle since his accident while ridding Shannon during the Belmont Park meeting, and Shilling had the leg up on King James.
The others carded declined the issue and it resolved itself into a match race. Ballot took the lead at the start and was never headed, rating along two lengths in front of King James all the way. Though both were under restraint to the head of the stretch Bailot ran the first mile in 1:37\(\frac{x}{2}\). King James was hard driven all through the stretch but could not cut down the lead of the whner. It was the second success for Ballot in the Advance, he having been first in 1908, when he hung out the record of 2:09\(\frac{x}{2}\) for a mile and five-sixteenths.

Next in racing importance was the mile handicap that went to Sir John Johnson, which made all the pace to nose out Nindus. In this race Restigouche was mulucky at the start and ran a winning race to save third money. King's Daughier, heavily backed, failed to cut any figure and Candleberry, the Wilson starter, was practicaly left at the post. Aunt Jule was an easy winner of the steeplechase for selling platers. The Peer had no trouble in benting sone cheap ones over the mile and a half turf course, while Cohort and War Jig were other winners.

CONDENSED HISTORY OF THE SURF STAKES

The Surf is one of the first list of stakes devised by the Coney Island Jockey Club, having been run for the first time in 1880. It will consequently be run for the thirty-first time this afternoon. Its first winner was the beautiful and extremely fast Leamington filly, Spinaway, in honor of which the principal Saratoga stake for two-year-old fillies was named. Other grand colts and fillies which subsequently won the Surf were Thackeray, Wanda, Portland, Tremont, Torso, Sally McClelland, Declare, Hastings, Water Color, Inflexible, Voorhees, Peter Pan and Suffragette. While not ranking with the first-class races for two-year-olds, it has always been of sufficient value to be considered an important event and has, for one reason and another, been popular with and coveted by owners and trainers. Its record to date is as follows:

BRIGHT OUTLOOK FOR YONKERS MEETING.

Something of the Reasons That Impelled Transfer of Brighton Dates to Empire City.

Empire City has taken over the Brighton dates will race from July 5 to August 3, inclusive. Then will come twenty-one days at Saratoga, after which nobody at present seems to know exactly what will happen.

There is no doubt, horsemen say, that a long meeting at Empire City will prove remarkably successful. There is pienty of stable room, as General Manager Winn has made extensive additions in this respect. The track, a mile in circumference, is one of the fastest in this country, and the facilities for training horses are up to date. President Buller of the Empire City Racing Association recently purchased for $40,000 the plot of ground extending from the clubhouse to the corner of Jerome and Yonkers avenues and has transformed it into a beautiful paddock, with many shade trees and ample room for the saddling and exercising of the racers. This improvement will make the Empire City track one of the most attractive on the circuit.

The transit facilities have been improved since last summer, and with a list of more than twenty well-filled stakes the public will doubtless be on hand every day in large numbers. Westchester was always devoted to the race horse with Jeroune Park and Morris Park in existence, so that when these fanous courses were razed and Belmont and Empire City supplanted them, the interest in the thoroughbred did not die out. There are hundreds of followers of racing in Westchester who never visit the Long Island tracks and who welcome the annual meeting at Empire City with open arms. It was with a feeling of disappointment therefore that the announcement of a twelve-days session at Yonkers was received last March, but now that twenty-six days of sport will be provided the old enthusiasm will be kindled.

President Butler and Manager Winn have won the loyal support of the horsemen by making this move. They will provide continuous racing with liberal stakes and purses and will be satisfied to break even financially. From the day that the Hart-Agnew law against bookmaking was passed in 1908, Messrs

Lexington, Ky., June 27.—Eight cars were set on the siding at Elmendorf Farm this afternoon and enders came from James B. Haggin's New York office to doad them tomorrow morning with thoroughbred yearlings, stallions and mares for export. It is now believed at the farm that Mr. Haggin may have decided not to send all of the yearlings to Argentine Republic and that some of them may be sold at Sheepshead Bay next week.

WOMAN WINS GRAND PRIX DE PARIS.

W. K. Vanderbilt's Reinhart Runs Second to Nuage in the World's Richest Race,

Paris June 27.—The race for the Grand Prix de Paris of $60,000, at one mile and seven-eighths, run at Bois de Boulogne yesterday, was won by Mme. N. G. Cheremeteff's bay colt Nuage, by Simonian—Nephte, W. K. Vanderbilt's black colt Reinhart, a lilmois II.—Reinette, was second and beaten a length, and J. A. de Rothschild's chestnut colt Bronzino, by Marco—Flitters, was third. Jockey Childs rode the winner. F. O'Neill rode for Vanderbilt and Fox was on Bronzino. There were seventeen starters.

The Grand Prix this year will be memorable as being the first time it has been won by a woman. Numerous English patrons of racing who were present were much disappointed to see the favorite English horse, Lemberg, winner of the Derby at Epsom, run without being placed. W. K. Vanderbilt's Reinhart would likely have won the race had the distance been longer.

Mme. Cheremeteff's triumph was greeted enthusiastically. The betting was $410,000, or $25,000 more than last year. Mme. Cheremeteff is the daughter of the wealthiest Russian tea merchant. M. Kousnetzoff, and is the wife of a Russian rall-way official. Although the weather was hauspiclous, the attendance was large, English and Americans forming a goodly proportion. The king and queen Bulgaria were present. President Fallieres arrived in time to see the great event of the day. W. K. Vanderbilt's Messidor III. came in second in the Prix de la Porte Maillot of $1,000 and his Oversight won the Prix de Seine et Marne of $4,000. Mr. Vanderbilt's Messidor III. came in second in the Prix de Loubevoie. Frank O'Neill, the American jockey, was up on both of the Vanderbilt winners.

The Grand Prix de L'Elevage of $10,000, distance two miles, six and one-half furlongs, was run at Autenil today and was won by Eugene Fischof's Piggott.

SANFORD STRING REACHES SARATOGA

New York, June 27.—General Stephen Sanford's stable, consisting of twenty-seven horses of various ages, has arrived at Saratoga. The Hurricana horses will immediately begin work for the August races, They were walked the twenty miles from Hurricana Farm near Amsterdam to Saratoga according to custom, and they made the trip without accident. They are at Saratoga this year earlier than usual. The up-state sportsanan does not race hereabouts in spring and early summer and he is determined this year that his two-year-olds shall have an opportunity to frain over the course on which they will race. The two-year-olds will need a lot of hard work at Saratoga, for they will meet in August youngsters seasoned by racing at Gravesend, Sheepshead Bay and Empire City.

General Sanford believes that he has this year the smartest bunch of two-year-olds ever sent out from Hurricana. Most of them are sons and daughters of the tried Hurricana stallions, Rockton, Chuctanunda, Isidor and Clifford. But stout old Canghuawaga, winner of a Saratoga Handicap, a Saratoga Cup and a Twin City Handicap, is represented among them. One of Caughnawaga's most promising coits is Mason, whose dam is White Frost. Another is Van Zee, dam Garoga. Caughnawaga has a good-looking filly in trainer Albright's charge in Moily Ho, a daughter of Ballyroe.

LATONIA HAS MORE RAIN

TRACK CONVERTED INTO MUDDY STATE AND ATTENDANCE IS GREATLY AFFECTED.

Righteasy Leads from Start to Finish in the Handicap-Hughes Only Winning Favorite-P. M. Civill to Retire from the Turf.

Cincinnati, O., June 27.—Heavy rains that fell during the morning and continued until nearly post time, caused a decrease in attendance, converted the track into a muddy condition and furnished frequent upsets. Hughes, in the closing race, was the only favorite to score during the afternoon. Speculation was fairly brisk and those successful in backing the winners secured good odds. The mile handicap which featured the card resulted in another Bedwell success when Righteasy won in easy fashion from Tony Bonero and Dr. Holzberg after leading for the entire trip, Joe Morris made his initial start in this race since his Latonia Derby victory, but the going militated against him and he was outpaced for the entire trip.

In the fifth, at a mile and seventy yards, John Furlong and Foxy Mary were considered to havesthe race between them, but Markie M. won as his rider pleased, Foxy Mary taking second place, with John Furlong winding up in last place. His showing today was in striking contrast to his previous effort in practically the same kind of going.

The opener was thought to be between St. Aloysius and Emigrant, but both were outpaced all the way by Volthorpe, a good-looking youngster by Wooisthorpe—Voltario. Another Woolsthorpe-sired youngster landed the second purse, for which some fairly well-tried two-year-olds ran, when Indian Girl led her opposition home.

George Land took his first purse with All Red when that recent purchase of his scored the easiest win of the afternoon over the platers that engaged in the third race. Hughes led all the way in the closing dash.

Judge Price excused from starting, after the track became muddy, the horses Louis des Cognets, Clint Tueker, Barusdale, Friend Harry, Boggs, St. Jeanne and Howard Shean.

P. M. Civill was among the visitors this afternoon. He announced his permanent retirement from the turf, having disposed of his horses befor departure from Hamilton, Ont. He intends to embark in business in St. Louis, Mo.

KING GEORGE WINS HIS FIRST RACE.

London, June 27.—King George V. won his first race when Royal Escort, carrying Lord Derby's colors, under which the royal stable is to be run for a year, won the Wellington Handicap of $1,500 at Sandown Park Saturday. Before the start Royal Escort, a son of Diamond Jubilee, botted and threw his jockey. Wootton, and galloped over the entire course. The result was that the odds against him lengthened from 3 to 1 to 10 to 1. When he won in a canter after his wild runaway there was more cheering than has been heard on a race course in England this year. Amid the demonstration aroused by loyalty to the royal owner the bookmakers shed tears of sorrow, besieged by large crowds who had put their money on Royal Escort.

IRON MASK NOT THE BEST.

New York, June 27.—It is said that when Iron Mask, by Disguise—Royal Rose, won recently in James R. Keene's colors the best colt from this great racing stable was not shown. Those who have hung over the rails at Sheepshead Bay early in the morning, watches in hand, say that while Iron Mask is a first-class youngster and may win the Great Trial Stakes on Saturday, Mr. Keene has two other colts of greater quality in Blackfriar, a black by Disguise—Fealty, and Lahore, a chestmut by Delhi—Nora Creina. The clockers say they have seen Blackfriar and Lahore easily beat Iron Mask in work, which if true means that Mr. Keene will make a strong bid for the leading two-year-old honors.

WHIST AND HIS BREEDING

New York, June 27.—Whist, a recent juvenile winner, is the first Singleton to attract attention. His sire is a young St, Simon stallion that cost August Belmont $15,000 as a yearling. He did not race successfully, but he was always fast in work, and Mr. Belmont installed him at the Nursery Farm because of his beautiful breeding.

Whist is from Wood-nymph, daughter of The Ill-I'sed or Magnetizer, and Woodbine, by Censor or Kentucky. Wood-nymph's second dam was Fleur des Champs, by Newminster, an imported mare. The best of Wood-nymph's recent contributions to racing is the useful selling plater, Woodcraft, still in S. C. Hildreth's stable.

HILDRETH BUYS ANOTHER YEARLING.

New York, June 27.—S. C. Hildreth is still buying yearlings. His latest acquisition is the Ben Strome—Strychinia colt, for which John Hynes paid $1,500 at the Dixiana sale. Mr. Hildreth likes this colt, not only because he is a fine, robust yearling, of good bone and substance, but because he is a brother to Highball, the American Derby winner of 1904. The purchase of the Ben Strome colt brings the yearling strength of the Hildreth stable up to six head.

GOOD OPINION OF WESTERN FILLY.

New York, June 27.—"Turfmen who saw Ocean Bound win the Swift Stakes at Sheepshead Bay promptly formed the opinion that Woodford Clay's filly is the best three-year-old in training with the possible exception of the famous Waldo, which has not faced the barrier since last year," comments the Sun. "Ocean Bound subjected Dalmatian to a sound beating at equal weights in the Swift Stakes and could have won just as easily if the distance had been more than seven-eighths. Dalmatian took the measure of Prince Imperial and Sweep in the Brooklyn Derby, at a mile and a quarter, meeting the former on even terms and receiving four pounds from the Keene colt. Prior to the Derby, Sweep defeated The Turk, each with 126 pounds, at a mile, in the Carlton Stakes, while The Turk trimmed Prince Imperial in the Withers under similar conditions. Mr. Clay thinks Ocean Bound is one of the best race mares ever seen on the eastern tracks and predicts that she will go through the season without losing one of her stake engagements. Whether she classes with such mares as Masketic, Tradition. Beldame, Hamburg Belle, Gunffre, Yorkville Belle, and others remains to be seen."

LAYERS ORDERED TO TAKE BETS.

The management of the Utah Jockey Club has made a ruling requiring bookmakers to accept any wager offered at odds they may quote that will bring the total proceeds of the bet to $200 or less.
